

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PARK CITY.

Mrs. Wallace Bransford, Misses Hannah LeCompte, Irma and Margaret Watson, George N. Quinn and Frank A. Shields spent Sunday on the Provo river and at the Hot Pools.

William P. Mortensen and son, Willie, went down to the city Sunday afternoon to visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dean and little daughter are visiting in the Park, with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hubbard.

Misses Margaret Jennings and Ruth Abbott entertained a crowd of young people on a picnic up the tramway Tuesday.

During the day games of all kinds were played, and at noon time a cold luncheon was served, after which the crowd of merry-makers returned to their homes.

Mrs. Peter Martin and children spent the fore part of the week in Provo, visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kneale returned from Ogden Monday afternoon, where Mr. Kneale has been visiting for his health.

The girls of the G. A. club entertained their gentleman friends at the home of Mrs. Helen Wilson on lower Park avenue Tuesday evening.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Smith and after several hands, the prizes were awarded to Miss Jeanie Sherman, Berlie Peaty, Peary Baker and Charles Coulton. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. John Thompson and son, Kent, are visiting in this city the guests of Miss Minnie Kessel.

P. H. Neely spent the fore part of the week in Park.

Mrs. Charles Watson and Dan B. Shields spent Tuesday in Heber and Midway.

A pleasant affair was the card party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. L. E. Hubbard at her home, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dean, who are her guests for a few days.

Five prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Smith and the prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Smith and after several hands, the prizes were awarded to Miss Jeanie Sherman, Berlie Peaty, Peary Baker and Charles Coulton. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. W. Sherman and children left Tuesday for Montana on an extended visit with relatives and friends.

A jolly crowd composed of the following people: Mrs. Wallace Bransford, Miss Hannah LeCompte, Misses Irma and Margaret Watson, George N. Quinn and Frank A. Shields, rode over to Silver Lake Wednesday afternoon, where they spent several hours enjoying the scenery, boat riding and visiting friends. The return trip was made that night.

Mrs. H. W. Deighton and two daughters, Alice and Blanche, and Miriam Radon, went down to the city Wednesday afternoon on a two weeks' visit with relatives.

The social event of the week was the bridge party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Shields at her home on Park avenue, in honor of Mrs. Wallace Bransford of Salt Lake. Cards were played during the afternoon and prizes were won by Mrs. Bransford and Mrs. LeCompte, and following this, Miss Irma Watson, who has recently returned from the Boston conservatory of music, played all present with a number of musical selections.

Miss Laura Townsend also played some very pretty music. Mrs. Shields was assisted in receiving by several young ladies. The rooms were very prettily decorated with cut flowers and all in all the affair was one of the most elaborate of the season. About twenty were present.

William Donovan and Joe Sullivan returned from a month's visit in Nevada and California Thursday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rose, who are visiting in this city with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hayt. Only a few friends were present.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Miss Bessie Thomas of Logan, Utah, and Joseph Kemp of this city, the wedding to be held at Logan on the 14th inst.

John Kelley returned Friday morning from a pleasant visit in Salt Lake.

Miss Freeda Funk was the charming hostess at a card party given at her home

Thursday evening. Besides card playing, several musical selections were given by Miss Irma Watson and Miss Funk. Light refreshments were served, and a delightful evening spent.

The members of the Methodist church Sunday school enjoyed themselves on a picnic Thursday at the city park.

Mrs. Charles Shields entertained at dinner Saturday in honor of Mrs. Charles Watson and daughter, Miss Irma, of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles Watson and daughter returned to their home Saturday afternoon after a year's absence.

Miss Annie Berry entertained a few of her friends at a birthday party Tuesday afternoon.

EPHRAIM.

Miss Belle Quinn returned Wednesday from her two months' trip to California.

Miss Quinn will resume her work as teacher in the Salt Lake public schools next month.

Mrs. Dorothea Christianson was given a pleasant surprise party Wednesday afternoon by about twenty of her girl friends. A nice luncheon was served at her home by the guests.

Next Tuesday evening the officers of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement association will entertain their friends at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Hunt. The lawn will be decorated with the latest lights, Japanese lanterns and flowers. The officers will serve luncheon on the occasion.

Elmer Christianson left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where he has accepted a position in the geodetic service of the government.

Miss Ruby Quinn spent Friday and Saturday with relatives in Mt. Pleasant.

Miss Caroline Brady of Fairview visited friends in the city last week.

Henrietta Jensen of Mayfield visited relatives in Ephraim this week.

Ralph Soderberg returned to Salt Lake Tuesday. He has spent two weeks visiting his parents and friends in this city.

Mrs. Daniel Olson visited relatives in Utah last week.

A. W. Miner, county superintendent of schools, conducted teachers examination at the Snow academy Thursday and Friday.

Miss Anna Mickelson of Mantu was the guest of Miss La Priel Willardson the first of the week.

The Snow academy faculty leaves the first of the week for a trip through Sevier and Piute counties in the interests of their school.

Daniel Olson is spending the week on his ranch at Gunnison.

Elton Hanson left Tuesday for Salt Lake. He spent two weeks visiting his parents and friends in this city.

Arnon Nielson returned home from Springville the first of the week.

Nielson will open a bakery and confectionery store in this city about Sept.

Selma Rasmussen has gone to Salt Lake, where she will spend the month with relatives and friends.

Ross Anderson and Lafayette Olsen, who have spent the summer at Berkeley, Cal., are expected home Monday.

Anderson has accepted a position as teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. Olson will resume his work as principal of the Redmond schools the first of the month.

Miss Ida Freschnecht of Mantu visited relatives in this city the first of the week.

Miss McCallahan of Mt. Pleasant was an Ephraim visitor the last of the week.

Miss Minnie Jensen of Mayfield was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thorvald Hansen of this city, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Frank Tuttle of Mantu visited relatives in Ephraim Thursday.

Mrs. Heor Jorgenson returned to her home in Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Lewis of Salina spent the first of the week with relatives in the city.

The officers of the South end primary association gave a pretty lawn party on the Snow academy grounds Wednesday afternoon. Ice cream, cake and refreshments were served to the members of the association and a large number of friends.

Roy Quinn of Mt. Pleasant was an Ephraim visitor Saturday.

Mrs. James Anderson of Salt Lake visited Ephraim friends the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Magelby of Salt Lake are guests at the Union hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Sorenson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sorenson spent the week at the Beaver dams in the mountains east of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Anderson are Salt Lake visitors.

Miss Josephine Peterson of Salina was an Ephraim visitor Monday.

Mrs. John Sorenson and daughter, Johann, visited with Mantu friends this week.

Miss Anna Newell of Provo was the guest of Mrs. Ethel Peterson the first of the week.

Dorothy Schultz of this city and Emma Powell of Lehi were married in Salt Lake City Monday of this week.

Mrs. E. D. Anderson of Spring City visited relatives in the city this week.

Mrs. Saddle Fowler of Provo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn, of this city.

Mr. J. S. Stanford of Salt Lake is spending the week in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong.

Mrs. Saddle Fowler of Provo is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn, of this city.

Frank and Archie Anderson of Glenwood were visitors in the city this week.

LEHI.

Thursday Mrs. John Y. Smith entertained about twenty friends with a most pleasant afternoon of games, refreshments and socializing.

Miss Dulcie Webb will leave this week for Sugar City, Ida., where she will resume her work as a primary teacher in the public schools.

Mrs. T. R. Cutler, Jr., returned Sunday to her home in Sugar City, after an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Samuel Taylor. Mrs. Taylor accompanied her daughter back to Sugar City and will spend the summer there.

Mrs. John Hedquist left for Holly, Colo., Monday and will make that place her future home.

James M. Kirkham, editor of the Lehi Banner, is spending a two weeks' vacation in Alberta, Can.

Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Worlton of Sugar City are visiting friends and relatives here.

James M. Anderson, a former resident of this city but now connected with the public schools of Salt Lake City, is visiting his brother, A. B. Anderson, near Lehi.

E. J. McKinley of St. Anthony, Ida., is in Lehi shaking hands with old time friends. Mr. McKinley is manager of the independent telephone company in St. Anthony.

Mrs. Joseph A. Thomas is spending a month in Alberta, Canada, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. V. Harris.

Tuesday afternoon the junior class of the Y. L. M. L. A. was entertained at a Kensington by Miss Hazel Gotes.

Miss Hettie White, who was one of the party to sail on the ill fated Columbia, but was delayed because of the berths all being taken, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodhouse this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cutler of Garland returned home Sunday after a protracted visit with relatives in Lehi and American Fork.

John S. Evans and Wilford Knudson returned home Wednesday after spending about four years as Mormon missionaries in New Zealand.

Mrs. G. V. Parmelee of Salt Lake City was the guest of Mrs. W. M. Ingalls Sunday.

Miss Edna Stooker returned to her home in Salt Lake Sunday after spending a week with her uncle, Dr. G. L. Stooker.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hemphill removed to Salt Lake City this week, where they will make their future home.

R. D. Emmick of Denver is here on a visit to friends.

M. D. Gutch of Minneapolis is with friends in this city for a two weeks' visit.

John Farnes of Riverdale, Idaho, is in Logan on a visit to his parents.

Joseph Bithell and family went into Logan canyon for a week's outing on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. D. Ball, wife of Professor Ball, reached here this week after visiting for some time on the Pacific coast.

Editor Shelby of the Rich County News is here from Randolph on a visit to friends. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon.

George Fister left for Butte on Wednesday, where he will spend a week or two visiting friends.

Miss Violet Wendeborn returned to her home in Chicago on Wednesday, after a brief visit with her parents, who reside here.

Mrs. Katherine Smith returned this week from a pleasant stay at Kilgore, Idaho.

A kitchen shower in honor of Miss Bessie Thomas was given at the home of J. A. McCausland on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bayhouse of Boise, Idaho, was the guest of her sisters, Mrs. D. C. Budge and Mrs. Cook this week.

Miss Diana Beach is spending her vacation in Idaho Falls.

Mrs. H. C. Smith and daughters and Mrs. L. A. Hatch of Franklin returned this week from a visit to the National park.

Mrs. A. J. Hansen is in Payson this week on a visit to her mother, Mrs. P. Hansen.

Mrs. A. Bolleschweiler of Salt Lake City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

The Misses A. R. and Kate Adams of Salt Lake City were the guests of Captain and Mrs. Howard Perry this week.

J. Brown has gone to Rexburg for a two weeks' visit.

LOGAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Hayball and family and Mr. and Mrs. George O. Hayball left Thursday for a ten days' outing on the shores of Bear lake.

Mrs. N. R. Moore gave a Kensington tea on Saturday afternoon in honor of Misses DeGraff and Raymond of the New Jersey academy.

Mrs. Amelia Cathcart and son Leon of Pocatello are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Goodwin.

Mrs. J. Broberg, Chester Snow returned to their home in Provo the first of the week, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Maughan.

Miss Amanda Olsen returned the first of the week from a two weeks' visit in Bingham. Her sister, Mrs. Olive Lindblad, who spent several months in Bingham, returned with her.

H. P. Nielsen of La Grande, Ore., returned to his home on Tuesday, after spending a few days with his mother.

M. J. Calloway of San Diego, Cal., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. E. Beveridge of Salt Lake City came to Logan this week for a three weeks' visit.

Frederick J. Broberg, assistant cashier of the American National bank of San Francisco, came to Logan the first of the week on a visit to relatives. He left later for a visit to the National park, but will return here in a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jennings of Los Angeles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell this week.

Professor Thomas McKay of Ogden spent the first of the week with Logan friends.

P. G. Peterson of Salt Lake City spent the week in Logan.

Mrs. Eunice Watkins visited relatives in Brigham this week.

L. L. Hyde of The Dailies, Ore., is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Budge and daughter have gone to Los Angeles for a Kensington by Miss Hazel Gotes.

J. A. Hendrickson left this week for New York City. The trip combines business and pleasure.

Jacob West returned the first of the week from Alberta, Canada, where he spent some time with his sons, John and Fred.

Mrs. Dalinda Cotey, mother and daughter, left for Los Angeles this week, where they will visit for a time before proceeding to Corvallis, Ore., where Mrs. Cotey will take charge of the domestic arts department of the Oregon A. C.

E. W. Nelson and his son, Ed, have gone to San Diego, Cal., to take possession of a large ranch that they have purchased.

Lieutenant Eugene Santschi, a one time student of the A. C., but recently graduated from West Point, is visiting friends and former schoolmates here.

R. D. Emmick of Denver is here on a visit to friends.

M. D. Gutch of Minneapolis is with friends in this city for a two weeks' visit.

John Farnes of Riverdale, Idaho, is in Logan on a visit to his parents.

Joseph Bithell and family went into Logan canyon for a week's outing on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. D. Ball, wife of Professor Ball, reached here this week after visiting for some time on the Pacific coast.

Editor Shelby of the Rich County News is here from Randolph on a visit to friends. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon.

George Fister left for Butte on Wednesday, where he will spend a week or two visiting friends.

Miss Violet Wendeborn returned to her home in Chicago on Wednesday, after a brief visit with her parents, who reside here.

Mrs. Katherine Smith returned this week from a pleasant stay at Kilgore, Idaho.

A kitchen shower in honor of Miss Bessie Thomas was given at the home of J. A. McCausland on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bayhouse of Boise, Idaho, was the guest of her sisters, Mrs. D. C. Budge and Mrs. Cook this week.

Miss Diana Beach is spending her vacation in Idaho Falls.

Mrs. H. C. Smith and daughters and Mrs. L. A. Hatch of Franklin returned this week from a visit to the National park.

Mrs. A. J. Hansen is in Payson this week on a visit to her mother, Mrs. P. Hansen.

Mrs. A. Bolleschweiler of Salt Lake City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

The Misses A. R. and Kate Adams of Salt Lake City were the guests of Captain and Mrs. Howard Perry this week.

J. Brown has gone to Rexburg for a two weeks' visit.

RICHFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stillman spent the past week in Salina visiting with friends.

Mrs. George A. Beal, Jr., is visiting with her parents in Salina this week.

Mrs. Ed Anderson made a trip to Salt Lake Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. John Hood is visiting with friends in Salina this week.

Miss Jennie Potter visited with her parents in Vermilion the past week.

Mrs. Mattilda Anderson went to Salt Lake Friday for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Niels Nielson went to Salem Tuesday to visit with her parents.

Mrs. Anna Borg went to Salt Lake Sunday on a visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Van Wagenen are visiting with relatives in Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards were up from Salina visiting with friends this week.

Mrs. Johanna C. Christensen went to Salt Lake Friday to visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Mattie Burke of Annabella went to Salt Lake Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Black came down from Salt Lake Wednesday and went to Kimbrell Friday.

Mrs. Antoinette Lang arrived from Salt Lake Sunday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. M. Jones.

Mrs. Anna C. Ward arrived from Provo Saturday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Ogden.

Mrs. M. A. Freece of Salina was in Richfield the past week visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. G. Goldbranson.

Miss Tillie Cuddeback returned to Salina Tuesday after a week's visit here with the Misses Clark.

Mrs. E. A. Foutz and mother, Mrs. James, went to Fielding, Box Elder county, Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Caroline Nielson went to Salt Lake Friday to visit with some of her daughters, who are residing in that city.

Miss Stella Nielson returned to Salt Lake Monday after a visit of a few days with her cousin, Mrs. G. H. Ogden.

Mrs. J. W. Parks arrived from a visiting trip to Salt Lake and was accompanied by Miss Ruth Brady, who will visit with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Josephine Nelson came down from Mt. Pleasant Sunday and is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Mina Hanson.

Miss Effie Sorenson went to Scipio Friday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Ralph Fairbanks, Jr., arrived Sunday from a trip to California with her husband.

Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson went to Salt Lake Monday, accompanied by her two granddaughters, Louise and Olive Snyder, who have been visiting here for some time.

Willard Andelin left Sunday for Provo, and after a short visit with friends and relatives there will depart, accompanied by Mrs. Andelin, for Berlin, where he will complete his musical training.

Mrs. J. J. Thomas came down from Salt Lake last week and after visiting a few days with her sisters, Mrs. J. J. Woodring and Mrs. A. E. Williams, returned to her home, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Eleanor, who has been visiting here for a couple of weeks.

Born in Richfield, Aug. 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ogden, a son.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by County Clerk Parley Magleby: James A. Crossland of Richfield and Harriet A. Baldwin of Brookline; George Conder of Austin and Jennie Higgins of Brooklyn; George Jose of Kimberly and Hettie Sylvester of Elmore. They were all married by the clerk.

PROVO.

Miss Bertha Lewis entertained about twenty of her young friends at the home of Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry returned from Salt Lake after a couple of months' absence spent through Yellowstone Park. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bachman spent several days this week with friends in Salt Lake.

W. H. Dusenberry visited relatives and friends in Salt Lake and Ogden this week. R. D. Sutton of Park City has been visiting his family in this city the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. McEwan entertained a number of their friends at dinner at their home Sunday. Covers were laid for twelve.

Frank Graham of Salt Lake visited with friends in this city Sunday.

Mrs. Owen Dusenberry has returned to Salt Lake. She extended visit with relatives in this city.

Miss Vilma Knudsen will spend a week with relatives and friends in Salt Lake. Mrs. Reed Smoot and family spent several days this week with relatives in Salt Lake City.

Miss Or Sward delightfully entertained the Peter Pan club at her home Monday evening. A pleasant social time was spent and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Bertha Barney entertained a number of her girl friends at her home Thursday evening. Readings and music were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served.

Miss Sadie Graham entertained the employees of the postoffice and their wives at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Fries, Sunday evening. Progress high five was played and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Laura Foot won the ladies' first prize and J. R. Hodson the gentlemen's. Refreshments were served to about thirty guests.

Master Earl McAdam has returned home from a very pleasant two weeks' visit with friends in Salt Lake.

George W. Wheable and family have returned from a ten days' outing on the reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hampshire at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Bird entertained a few friends at dinner at their home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hager Singleton and daughter Hazel visited friends in Salt Lake this week.

Miss Ruth Matley of the county assessor's office spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Spanish Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knudsen, assisted by their daughters, Misses Lydia and Nettie, entertained at their home Friday evening in honor of their son Heber Knudsen. Games, music and readings were enjoyed by a large party of relatives and friends. Lunch was served. Rev. Engleburg of Bingham and Rev. Johnson of this city were the guests of James Cove on a pleasant fishing trip Thursday.

Mrs. John C. Graham went over to Payson Saturday morning on a visit to the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Finlayson.

Mrs. C. O. Newell entertained at a delightful card party Friday evening at the Hotel Roberts. Five hundred was the game played. Dinner was served at 7:30.

Miss Minnie Startup was a Salt Lake